To the Reader.

Courteous Reader,

THe last year being the first of my appearing into the world in print, hath encouraged me again to set Pen to Paper, seeing it was so well accepted; and finding that it hath don great good in the world. As for the Predictions the last year, I dare say none fell out more truer; for the Physical Cures none were better. Therefore this year, I here present thee with some other of the like nature, avoiding such Language, as may, perhaps, be offensive to some, whose tender Ears cannot away with the hearing of what, without scruple, they will do. It is not fit the world should be deprived of such helps to Nature; for want of which, many by their Modesty, suffer much: in many of which Cases, both men and women are very shie of acquainting Physitians; onely they will carry their water to a Physitian, and tell him they have a pain in the bottom of their bellies; and the Physitian is such a Dunce, he cannot discern the true cause of the Distemper: so the party suffers. That those parts might be kept in good case and serve to the mutual comfort of man and woman, I advised last year my Reader, to buy the book of the Womans

Councellour, or Feminine Physitian: and in regard that there be many rare useful and incomparable Directions, much to the benefit of Generation, that are not convenient to be published here, I recommend thee to the most excellent piece of Levinus Lemnius, his secret Miracles of Nature, modestly treating of Generation, and the parts thereof, and how one may be made fruitful that is barren; and by Art, get a Boy or a Girl, which they desire most. It also treateth of all manner of Secrets and Rarities of Nature whatever: with Rules for a vertuous life. The reason why I commend this piece, is, that our Sex may be furnished with knowledge: if they knew better, they would do better. It is better that they should exercise their parts, in that which appertaineth to a vertuous life, and be made a useful adornment to the Age wherein they live; which is the onely Design of the Year of our Lord,

PROGNOSTICATION

FOR

1659.

THe Sun entreth Aries at 2 min. past 1 in the Afternoon the 12th Day of March 1659. at which time I find Sol or the Sun Lord of the Ascendant, for that Leo is upon the Cusp of the Ascendant 7 deg. and 4. min. Jupiter being up the Ascendant newly ascended the Position. Our next enquiry of this Position, is to find how the rest of the Planets are posited: And first we find Sa-ram in the 4th house, in 25 deg. 6 min. of Libra, he being retrograde the head of the Dragon in the same house in 26 deg. and 4 min. of Scorpio being intercepted, Mars and Venus in Aquarius, in the 7th house, Mars in 9 deg. 10 min. and Venus in 19 deg. 53 min. the Moon in 16 min. of Pisces, the Sun Lord of the Ascendant in Aries, upon the cusp of the 10th house, the tail of the Dragon, Taurus intercepted in the 10th house: the Sun being Lord of the first house, or Ascendant, and Mars of the 2d, and placed nigh the Cusp of the 10th house, denoteth and prognosticateth to us, that Governors and Princes are very powerful in their Councils and Resolutions, and are very much aided by this position, in their putting in execution their Arbytrary commands, to the detriment of the people: but howmuch as the Sun is Lord of the Ascendant also, the people receive some aid from his influence; in regard the Ascendant hath particular regard to the people, their cattle, corn, and other commodities of the people shall much increase. The Undertakings of the people shall have very great success. Most of the children that are born this year shall be of more noble and generous dispositions then ordinary, more fit for Magistracy and publike Trust, more apt to gain Estates, and more ingenuous, fitter to be made Councellors, and to study the Sciences, then those that have been born for many years last past; Saturn being in the 4th house by day, argue, that many shall be exceslive covetous, gaping and raking together, and out of all measure envious and malicious. Mars being in the 7th house, denoteth most miserable and wicked murther and cruelties that shall be committed. Diseases of the belly, trouble of mind, Shipwracks, Tempests, and Thievery not a few. Venus being in the 7th house also prognosticateth terrible Adulteries and Fornications, the loss of abundance of Maiden-heads, and the desire of old women to young men. As for the whole year throughout, there will not be much excess of intemperate weather.

Of the Eclipses this present Year of our Lord, 1659.

ON the 26 of April, at 34 min. 7 seconds past 6 in the Evening, it continueth more or less eclipsed, until 9 of the clock: the duration thereof will be two hours, 51 minutes, and 54 seconds: In this Eclipse we find Mars Lord of the Ascendant, Scorpio being upon the Cusp of the 11th House, or Ascendant, the Moon being eclipsed in that sign of one of the houses of Mars, it doth denote much honour to the Peroick Sea-man, great success in their undertakings in the Naval Wars. Some are born now that shall be great Generals and famous Captains at Sea, they shall much honour the English Nation: I advise such Sea-men that are of any repute and credit, that intend Wedlock, not to look so low as the New Appion, but have higher thoughts, I fear them good success in their amorous Courtings. I cannot promise too much honesty of our Sex, but something more than ordinary this year; for all the Angles are possessed with fixed Signs also. I think that those Knaves that attempt the chastity of those that are not prostitute Whores, will find it a difficult master to attain their ends: but Mars being in the 4th house, denoteth that many villanies shall be acted by the scum of Mankind. I mean common Souldiers, who shall be ready to put in execution many villainous commands, let them be never so vile and wicked, Venus being in the same house in Aries, prognosticeth little less than Cuckow-hood to many Women, the Sun being in the Cusp of the 7th house in Taurus, the tayl of the Dragon being in the seventh House prognosticateth Ruptures and Impostumes, sore Throates, and such distates as flow from the Humours. Jupiter being in the 5th house, denoteth terrible Dreams and Visions, unquietness of the Mind in sleep, increase and discovery of Witches and Fortune-Tellers. Saturn being in the 12th house, prognosticateth, that Youth under 30. will be given to excess in expences, and dotage of women. Water shall do much hurt by over-flowing and breaches of Banks.

Another Eclipse of the Moon, is on the 20 of October, at 40 min. past one in the morning.

I Shall take little notice of this Eclipse, the Effects of it will principally be seen upon corn and cattle; It will be of some advantage to those that trade in Merchandize, and it foretelleth, of several Apostates that shall pretend to Divine Revelations and Visions. Likewise the death of several Witches.

One Eclipse of the Sun, visible on the 4th of November; it beginneth at 51 minutes, 48 seconds, afternoon; it endeth at 13 min. past 4. Continueth 2 hours, 22 min. and 2 seconds.

The Heavens appear with a notable face at the time of this Eclipse, the Sun, Moon, Venus, Mercury, and Dragon, are all in the 7th house. Such Sickness, Hypocrisie, Treason, and secret Plots and Contrivances; which will occasion the fall of some eminent great Stirs by Law-suits, many of which are occasioned by the unruly Tongues of our Sex-for which their husbands must suffer: the Lawyers will have too much employment: the Eclipse hath a malevolent influence on the Ages, chiefly their Sinews and Nerves, and contrarily the parts, which will cause stopping, and cause many to be vexed with Piles and Hemorrhoids, and all sorts of distempers that flow from the weakness of the back. Several, especially of our Sex, suffer much disgrace by venterous act on. Wise Maids, then do, would adventure upon it, were it not for fear of the rising of the Apron, which usually deters such actions. Mercury being in the 7th house also with Venus, and the rest of the Planets aforementioned, argueth, that the gift of mens patience is to be exercised by frequent Curtain-Lectures from their Women. Andlastly, many strong Holds that have been long besieged now surrender: And many Ladies that have been besieged by Suitors, do also surrender.

(Physical

Physical Observations.

Of Ruptures.

The general kind of Ruptures are three, Aquosa or watery: this is usual in Dropsies, when much water is descended into the Cods, which causeth them to swell. Ventosa, or a windy Rupture, that is when great store of wind is gathered into the Purse of the Testicles. And Carnosa, or a fleshy Rupture, which is caused either by the Excrementall growing of flesh in the Cods, or by the falling of the intestines into the Cods, the film or skin that should keep them up being broken.

Hernia, or Burstness, is also thus defined.

Hernia, or a Rupture, is properly said to be, when any humor appears in the purse of the Testicles, proceeding either from something descending into the Cods, or from some matter growing there, and causing the same to swel.

The cure of a watery Rupture.

The cure of a watery Rupture requires a two-fold intention, one is to take away the Antecedent cause, which is a flegmatick watery matter, lying ing from the Liver by reason of indigestion. The second intention is to dissolve that Aquosity, which is in the Cods, or to draw it out by perforation. The first intention is performed by abating the matter digesting and eradicating it.

Digestive Pills.

Take Pill Aggregative, Pill. de Rhabarb Milne, of each one scruple, form thereof 5 Pills with syrup of Endive.

Others if it Proceed from the Head.

Take Pill. Cochiæ, Aureæ, of each one scruple, make Pills thereof, and let the Patient take them going to bed.

A

A Digestive, when the watry Humour proceeds from the debility of the digestive vertue of the Liver.

Take syrrup of Endive, syrrup of Agrimony, Honey of Roses, of each half an ounce: Water of Guiacum wood, of Agrimony and Endive, of each one ounce, mix them, and take them at a draught.

If the Flegmatick matter proceed from the Head give this digestive.

Take syrrup of Stechas, without syrrup, honey of roses, oxymel simple, of each half an ounce, waters of betony, Guiacum wood, Endive, of each one ounce, mix them, and use them as the former. The matter being digested, give of the Pills of Rhabarb before prescribed, but in a greater Dose, and order them as. Take Pill Aggregat. de two scruples, pill of rhabarb one scruple, make thereof 7 pills, with syrrup of Stechas, and give them an hour before day, keeping rule of Diet intend to hot and dry, as we have spoken concerning the Diopsis.

The second Intention.

The second Intention is performed by altering the matter either sensibly, or insensibly or by drawing it out by perspiration, and by fortifying it, that it flow no more to the Eyes. It is first insensibly to be dissolved with fomentations, unctions, and applying of Plasters.

A Fomentation for the Eyes may be made thus.

Take Origanum, Calamint, Peny-royal, Camomile, Pill. Anethi, of each M. 1. Caraway, Annets, seeds of Agnus Castus, of each half an ounce, bruise them grossly, and boil them in a sufficient quantity of spring water, till half be consumed: Then dip a spunge in the said decoction, and therewith foment the eyes, repeating it often.

Then

Then when the place is fomented and dryed, anoint it with this following Unction.

Take Oyl of Castor, of Rue and Lillies, of each 6 ounces, infuse therein a Linnen cloth, and apply it to the cods.

A Resolutive Plaister for the same.

Take Mints, Balsamint, Origanum, Calamint, Chamedrys, Camepytis, Camomil, each one handful: Meal of Fenugreek, Beans and Lintseed, of each one ounce, Anniseed and Cumin-seed, of each half an ounce: set the herbs be subtilly huskt and boyled in a sufficient quantity of water, to a perfect decoction: then add the seeds in powder and the meal, and incorporate them well together with Oyl of Rue: and apply it plaister-wise to the cods; it inwardly dissolves the water which is included in the purse of the testicles. But when these Administrations have been used, and the watte cannot thereby be evacuated, it must then sensibly be drawn out by incision. Let an Orifice be made with a Lancet on the lower part of the cod; to as the water may pass out: but if the Patient be weak, even it is not to convenient to draw it all out at one time, but reiterate it often, and if the Orifice be closed up, then make a new one in another place.

The Cure of a Windy Rupture.

The first Intention is performed after the same manner as the Hernia Aquosa, that is, by evacuating the matter from whence the wind-nels proceeds. The second Intention, which hath respect unto the continuer cause, is thus performed: First by fomenting the purse with such things as dissolve wind: to which purpose, use such a fomentation as follows.

A Fomentation for a watry Rupture.

Take Origanum, calamint, savin, agr, betony, rue, camomile, of each one handful, seeds of Annis, Fenel, Cumin, caraway, Ameos, of each half an ounce, bruise them all grossly, and boil them in equal parts of wine and water, till a third part be consumed: and with a sponge imbibed in that decoction, foment the parts affected.

After

After the Fomentation, and the place is dryed, let this Unction be used.

Take oyl of Castor, Euphorbium, and Mirr, of each 2 drams, mix them and anoint the place therewith hot. And afterwards that plaister is convenient to be used, which is before mentioned in Hernia Aquosa.

Wines good to provoke the Terms.

Wine of Elecampane roots, of Marjerome gentle, of the heard Bennet, of Betony, of Gillo w-flowers, and of Rosemary, these are very good if the Patients Body be fitting to drink wine, otherwise discretion may direct you not to use it.

Confections good for this Disease are.

The Confection of Elecampane roots, the Confection of Eringo roots, Conserves of Bloomy, and Birch rooted in Apple.

A Syrup to stay the immoderate Flux of the Terms.

Take syrup of Endive, one ounce: syrup of Purslain, half an ounce: the Decoction of Agrimony, and of Plaintain four ounces: mix them together, and make them into a syrup, and so take it as you please.

An Electuary for the same.

Take Conserve of Roses, two ounces: of Water Lillies, one ounce: of Pearl prepared, and burnt Harts-horn, each half an ounce: Bole Armonick, Terra Lemnia, each half a scruple: mix them together with syrup of Plaintain, a quantity sufficient to make it into an Electuary.

An Electuary for the same.

Take Conserve of Roses, six ounces: Conserve of Burrage, Buglis, Palm, of each an ounce: Bolus prepared, a dram: Pearl prepared a quarter of an ounce of Rubies, Jacinths, Saphir, each a scruple: Cinamon, a dram; mix them together, and make an Electuary thereof.

An

An Oyl good to bring down the Tearms.

Take Oyl of sweet Almonds 2 ounces, of white Lillies one ounce, Oyl of Amber two drams, mix them, and therewith anoint &c. it is very effectual to; inflammations in those parts.

Another Electuary to stay the Terms.

Take conserve of Roses, three ounces: Marmalade, two ounces and a half: red Coral, a dram: Boles prepared, half a dram: Blood-stone prepared, two drams; mix them all together with the syrup of Myrtles, and make an Electuary thereof, and take it as you please.

Common Syrups which remove Obstructions of the Terms, are,

Syrup of Mugwort, of Maiden hair, of Chicory with Rhubarb, and the syrup of the five roots; these you may have ready at the Apothecaries.

Another to move the Terms.

Take Mints, Balm, Penny-royal, Marjerom and Southernwood, of each an handful: Aniseeds, Fennel and Carraway seeds, of each an ounce: Polipody, an ounce and an half: Chicory roots, an ounce: cut the roots and herbs very small, and boyl them all together in a quart of water till a third part be consumed; then strain it, and sweeten it with Sugar to your own liking, and take thereof as you please.

An Electuary to purge the Reins

Take Cassia newly extracted, one ounce: Rhubarb in powder, one dram: mix them together with syrup of white water Lillies, a sufficient quantity to make it into an Electuary; put this into a penny pot of White-wine, or a little posset drink, which comes first to hand; stir it well together, till it be all dissolved in the drink, and so take it in the morning fasting, and go about your business (if you have any thing to do) about two hours after, take some broth or posset drink.

This

This Medicine you may take twice or thrice, as you see occasion, resting always a day between.

After wards, you may take every other day, a dram of Trochis de Carabe in Plantane water.

You may also give the Patient, every second or third day, a dram of the filings of Ivory in Plantane water; it is very good.

Sweating is also much commended in this case, which may be thus done.

Take Barley water three ounces: strong Wine three ounces: give it the Patient very warm, and so let her sweat.

Afterwards prepare a Clyster in this manner.

A Clyster for the Whites, through Heat or running of the Reins.

Take Beets, Violet leaves, and Night-shade, of each one handful, seeth them well together, & take 12 ounces of the decoction, or boiled liquor, which you please to call it, and to it add, sugar one ounce and a half, yolks of eggs, Oyl of Water-lillies, Oyl of Roses, of each two ounces, salt a dram and a half: Give this Clyster in the Afternoon a little before meat.

Another for the Whites.

Take the seeds of Arch-Angel, or dead Nettles in powder, about a dram at a time in red wine. Confected Amisseds is also very good for this Disease: and not impropperly may be given in either case this following.

Another for the same, or Reds.

Take 4 spoonfuls of red-rose water, a new laid egge, a peny worth of white sugar-candy in powder, and a Nutmeg grated incorporate all these, and beat them well together, and drink it fast at night going to bed. You may also, if the Urine be sharp, so as to cause pain & sorenesse, use an Injection of Bestary.

A Pessary for the Whites in Women.

Take some whites of eggs, and beat them well in rose water, and make it into a Pessary, with some cotten or linen cloaths wet in it, and so put it up into the Matrix, always remembring to tie a string to it, to pull it out again when you please. If the Whites flow from abundance of superfluous humors, it will not be unnecessary to endeavour to evaporate the same through the skin, by using warm frictions, or rubbing of the whole body, first gently, and then more hard, by which means the humors may be purged through the skin.

Of the Fits of the Mother, or suffocation, or drawing up of the Matrix.

This happens to Women through several causes. Oftentimes when there is an obstruction, or stoppage of the Terms, which do hinder the Brain and Matrix with bad humors. Sometimes by reason of the retention of their natural Seed, as in Widows, and old Maids, by this retention causeth wind to ascend, and fill upwards from the Matrix.

But to proceed to remedies when this Disease cometh suddenly, forthwith cast cold water on her face, and give her cold water to drink.

A Powder to be used in the nature of a Pessary, against the suffocation of the Matrix, or fits of the Mother.

Take yellow Storax, Lignum Aloes, Cloves, of each a dram: Musk, Amber, of each half a dram: make them altogether into a powder, and then bind it up in a cloth in the form of a Pessary, and put it up into the Matrix.

A Fumigation for this Disease.

Take Gallia Moscata, Calia wood, Cynamon, Time, of each a like quantity: mix these together, and make a perfume thereof, and let the smoke be received up into the Matrix, through a tunnel for that purpose.

If the Patient be a Widow, a husband is the best medicine, if she can get one: but in case that cannot be had

for

let her abstain from strong Wines and flesh meat, and all such things as increase naturall sperme.

And use letting blood, such meats and drinks as are cooling; and amongst the rest, this Confection following is very good.

Another for the same.

Take an ounce of Oyl of Lilies, Musk Saffron, of each three grains; dissolve all well together, and make a Pessary thereof with Mooll, or Cotton, and put it up into the place.

A Fume for the falling down of the Womb.

Take Tormentil, Bistort, juyce of Soles, of each three drams, Pomegranate pills, the bloosoms thereof, of each a quarter of an ounce. Alla setida an ounce: Mastick, Frankincense, Galbanum, of each two drams and a half: Cypress Nuts, Galls, Myrtle seed, of each; drams stamp and mix all these together, and strew thereof upon a red hot brick, and let the Patient receive the fume thereof beneath. Let it not come at her Mouth, but in the mean time let her smell to Musk, Amber, Violets, and such sweet smells, which draw up the Mother, and cause it to ascend again.

An Oyntment for the falling down of the Womb.

Take the Oyntment of Holly berks, which is called at the Apothecaries, unguentum de Althea, mix therewith some marrow of an Ox, or other beast, the grease of a hen or capon, and some oyl; and herewith anoint the neck of the Matrix, and all the parts about it when you go to bed: you may also make a plaister hereof, and apply it all night as before.

To prevent Miscarriages.

Take Caraway seed one dram, Annos, Ginger, Bryony root, of each one scruple: Keep the Caraway seed in Vinegar

Vinegar, and dry it again, and beat it to powder: then mix, with the rest, and give a dram thereof in white wine, sweet morning for certain days together.

A Confection to cause fruitfulness in Man or Woman.

Take Rapes, Ivory shaven, Ashkeys, Stelly, Bryon red and white, of each one dram: Cinamon, Nutmegs, Mace, Cloves, Galingale, long Pepper, Rosemary flowers, Ballom wood, Blattis, Byzantic Marjoram gentle, Penny-royal, of each two scruples: Balm, Buglas, Cleyon pieces, of each one scruple: Spica Indie, Amber, Pearls, of each half a scruple: Sugar a pound: dissolve the Sugar in Malmsey, and the other things; and make them into a Confection, eat of it a little at a time.

A Powder for the same to be strewed on meat.

Take, Nutmegs, Cubebbes, Ginger, of each half a dram: long Pepper, Mastick, Cinamon, red Behen, white Behen, of each a scruple: mix them all together, and make them into fine powder, and strew of it a little upon the parties meat.

Another Confection for the same.

Take Honey, three ounces: Linseed, Grains, Ivory shaven, of each one ounce: Borage, three ounces: Sugar 24 ounces: Musk, Amber, of each half a scruple: Cinamon, two grains: Cloves, Mace, of each one grain: clarifie the Honey, then incorporate the other things with it to make a Confection thereof, and take of it as you please.

A Potion to further Conception in a Woman.

Take Worm-wood, Mugwort, of each a handful: boil them together in a quart of Goats milk, till almost half be wasted, and let the Woman drink thereof fasting a week, every morning and evening a good draught.

A Plaister to remedy the corrupt Humors.

Take Roses, Cypres Nuts, burnt Ivory, sandarack, of each one dram, Rosen ounces: boil the Rosen in red

Vinegar

Vinegar, till the vinegar be consumed; then mix the ashes with it, and make two plaisters of it, and apply one to the back, and the other to the wound.

Another excellent good Plaister to strengthen Women with Child, that do not use to go out half their times.

Take oyl of Mastick, oyl of Roses, oyl of Wines, of each one ounce and a half; Compound Bloud-stone, terrestial, sanguis draconis, Date stones burnt, of each one dram; mix it with a sufficient quantity of wax to make a plaister thereof, and with this anoint the kidneys and stomach.

Pills to expel a dead Child.

Take Myrrhe of Sabry, a scruple, Galbanum half a scruple; make pills thereof with penny-royal water.

A Fume to expel the dead Child.

Take some shavings of an Asses hoof, or of a Horses, if you cannot get the other, and make a fume thereof, & let the Woman sit thereon.

A Confection for an excessive flood in women lying in Child-bed.

Take Conserve of Bugle, one ounce, Conserve of Roses, one ounce, Conserve of Burrage, Buglos, Balm, of each half an ounce; prepared Coral, half a dram; prepared Pearls, one dram; Cydonions one dram and a half; mix them all together, and make a Confection thereof.

Lozinges very effectual for the same.

Take Blood-stone, one dram and a half: red Coral, one dram: Tormentil, Troches de Gordo, of each half a dram; scraped Ivory, Hartshorn, of each one scruple; Pearls prepared, four scruples: fine Balm, two scruples: Sheeps-dung purified, Sanders, of each a scruple; Cinnamon, one dram; Sugar, six ounces: wash the Bloud-stone in Plantain water, and make a powder, of Lozinges thereof.

January Astrological Observations.

THe Season is not more turbulent and uncertain then the Affairs of State, at this present beginning of the Year: Divers eminent Persons are removed to private condition, or worse: I mourn not the deserts of others, and death of some; I should have said, rather their chance thereof: It falleth out sometimes in so perverse an Age as this, that the most honest suffer most: Crane will not abound, the Treasure of the Common-wealth is much exhausted: May to be delivered.

Observations for the good Husbands and good Housewives.

Plow for Peale, fallow such land as you intend shall rest the year following; water your barren Meadows Pasture, and plain arrable ground, especially if you intend to sow Peale, Oats, or Barly the second time following: also stub up all rough grounds, trim up your Garden mounts; The weather calm, remove all manner of fruit trees, rear Calves, remove Bees, keep good Diet.

February, Astrological Observations.

THis Moneth will be Epidemicall to many Women with child, and of evil consequence to others, not so far gone with child. Many now bleeding, endure almost alike torture to bringing forth. Therefore good women make much of your selves, let your Husbands pay for it. I need not exhort some there are many worthy of esteem, for making too much of naught. May I may also, be never be good. Publike Actions, this Moneth no productive effects. Something will be in the North and South East part of the World: private conspiracies will be hatching, but few take effect, or be brought to light.

Observations very useful and profitable.

Set Beans, peaſe, and other pulſe in ſtiff ground, begin the ſooneſt, prepare your garden, prune and trim your fruit trees from Mothes, Cankers, and ſuperfluous branches, plaſh hedges, lay your quickſet cloſe, plant Roſe, Gooſeberry trees, and any other ſhrub trees, and graft your tender ſtocks: forbear all phlegmatick meats.

March, Aſtrological Obſervations.

PReparations for Martial Undertakings, I wiſh we had peace with Spain, plainer I dare not ſpeak: ſome kind of probability there is, that the people may have ſome eminent Champions to aſſert their Liberties, not onely by Pen, but alſo by Councel and Arms: the Clergy ſtill endeavour to keep the Carr on the Wheels. Novice Lay Vulpetters begin more and more to decline their impudent and audacious publike bablings: the Sectaries decreaſe in credit and number.

Obſervations very uſeful and profitable.

Look well to your Ewes, cut up underwood or kewel, tranſplant all ſort of ſummer flowers, comfort them with good earth, eſpecially the Crown Imperial, Narciſſus, Tulips, and Lyacinth; in your barren fruit trees, bore holes and drive hard wedges of Oak, and cover roots of trees cloſe with fat earth that are uncovered; graft fruit trees and ſowe Dates, Rye, and Barley. Let your Diet be cold and temperate.

April, Aſtrological Obſervations.

I Adviſe the National Miniſtry to preach, by their practice amendment of life, as well as by their tongues: They may, peradventure, reprove me of boldneſs herein, it matters not: I could rather ſee them buſied in converting Publicans and ſinners, then in Princes Courts; I find ſome of them buſie themſelves too much in matters of ciuill concernments. Great and extraordinary Actions this Moneth, I will lay a wager upon ſome heads, if they do not part with their ſhoulders, they will be Waſters.

Obſer-

Observations very profitable and useful.

Sowe your Hemp and Flax, sowe and set all sorts of Beachs, open your Hives, and give your Bees their liberty and let them labour for their living; cut your Dale-Timber, the bark is best for the Tanners use. Stocke your Birches, gather your Manure together, in heaps, gather Stones, repair high-wates, set Osiers and Willows, and cast up all decayed Fences. For your health, use moderate exercise.

May, Astrological Observations.

THe effects of what was begun the last Month, lasteth this, and will so do for many years. Though acted with much variety, a perfidious Army cleaveth. Those who have been once false, will never be true: A juster reward cannot be. Several Retainers to the Law, receive Additions of honour to their parts. It would be well that they had also one grain or two of honesty by more added to each of those Worthies of the Long-Robe, for which their Clients would be no whit sorry.

Observations very profitable and useful.

Fold your Sheep, carry forth Manure, and bring home fewel: weed Winter Corn, furnish your Dairy, let your Mares go to Horse, eat your dry Kine, and away with them: sowe your tender seeds as Cucumbers, Melons, all sweet kind of herbs and flowers. For your health drink clarified whey.

June, Astrological Observations.

SOme small amendment of Trade, a good season. People are disposed to pleasure. Forreign Princes send their Ambassadors to congratulate some new change, or to negotiate some extraordinary Affairs: It will be more then an ordinary mercy, if now we are not in blood: I do not see how without it, such things which we expect, can be brought to pass: the best Title, is power. Other claims, are void.

Observations very profitable and useful.

Distil all sorts of Plants and Herbs whatever, Cut your rank Meadowes, fetch home fewell, and carry forth ma-

Manure, Marle, and Lime to mend your Land: Be sure to be chast this Month what ever you are the rest of the year.

July, Astrological Observations.

From all parts we hear of deceytfull and whirlewindy Fits: Germany is not a little concerned: The Turk may adventure upon Transilvania and Hungaria, whilst the Poles near home lick the silver out of one pockets: the people begin to be undeceived, by discerning the abuses frequently admitted; and if there be not a Parliament, it is not a little wished, they find that there is great need of one: that although they are bad Food, yet they are good Physick.

Observations very profitable.

Attend your Hay harvest, mow fields hasty: let the pieces you intend to preserve run to seed; cut off the seeds of your flowers, and cover the roots with new fat earth: sell your Lambs you intended for the Shambles. Take no physick, unless in extraordinary cases, refrain Venery.

August, Astrological Observations.

The Catholick Sea bewaileth it self, I mean the Pope by his Councel, and by his Emissaries. Invelgencies, Pardons, and other rare Inventions are his wits. They would willingly promote their Interest which daily, and constantly to decline and waste less. New schisms to arise amongst them, much to the detriment of the Church: their acrimonies increase what they appear. Wonders not a few will be common to this Month.

Observations very useful.

Follow diligently your Corn harvest, cut down your Wheat and Rye, Mow Barley and Oates, put off your fat Sheep and Cattel, tather your Blums, Apples, and Pears; make your Summer Perry and Cyder, set your Tulips and Crowns of all sorts of Gillyflowers, and other flowers; Translate them that were set in the Spring. Geld your Lambs, carry Manure from your Dove-coats put your Swine to the early mast. Refrains all excess in eating and drinking, drink that which is cooling.

Septemb.

September, Astrological Observations.

SOme miserable disaster happenery in London, I wish the rest may be preserved by prayer. Distempers of body to very frequent and pestilent: Temperance must be yours Spirituall this season, the Intemperance will much indanger your health. Byzantes are now frequent; Merchants find the effects thereof to their sorrow. The Bashaw-mah hath received a great harbour into his Barn.

Observations very useful and necessary.

Cut your Beans, Pease, and all manner of Pulse; as the Land you intend to sowe Wheat and Rye, before the best manner; gather your Winter fruit, sell your Wool, stocks of Bees, and other commodities you intend to put off. Thatch your hive of Bees you intend to keep, and look that no Owsons, Mice, or other vermin be about them. Thank your Gods, Wheat and Rye. The Physick moderately, shun the eating of sweet or rotten fruit, avoid sweating.

October, Astrological Observations.

FRequent Law-suits and Quarrels are threatned, Inconveniencies not a few do abound. The Eminent contend about dividing the spoil of the Inferior, who standeth still the while, A misery not the least, that Mankind is now often cast into. Arm thy selfe with Wisdom and Prudence, to shun the evil of it, else you must strive with patience to submit to it. I speak of no other Arms, lest I should be taken to be a Trumpter to private Rebellion: However, at a venture I will say, that a people are not bound to obey well, when Governors do not govern well.

Observations very useful and profitable.

Finish with your Winter-seed, plash and lay your hedges and quickets, scour your Ditches and Bounds, transplant and remove all manner of fruit trees, make Winter Perry and Cyder, spare your Pasture and feed upon your corn fields: draw furrows to drain and keep dry your new sowen Corn; make Malt, geld all new taken Calves, all Foals that were foaled in the Spring drawn from the Dams. Still your Perry that you do not intend to winter, and separate Lambs from the Ewes that you intend to keep. Recreate your spirits by harmless sports, and take physick by good advice if need be.

November, Astrolgical Observations.

COme let us all amend, the worlds bad enough: the King of Spain after his long and tedious war fetcheth peace every where; the French are high and rampant. The Dutch are privately buying all advantages pull the chief may tend to the increasing of Trade. They account it their principal strength to enrich the people... London, not without the Malignant Mart-makers of discontent. The great Ones are jealous of their condition, and much question their safety, which hath no other Foundation then the Dumont of the people.

Observations for the good Husbands and good Housewives.

Cut down your Timber for Ploughs, Carts, Naves, Felleres, Harrows, and other offices about husbandry, and housewifry; make the last return of grass fed Cattel, take you those from the main, and feed them for the slaughter: Reap all Calves that fall now, Drink all Hemp and Flax you intend to spend in the Winter season. Remove fruit trees, and sow Wheat and Rye in hot soyls; Mix spices and wine, moderately.

December, Astrological Observations.

THis Month produceth little of Actions, more then Robberies, Piracies and Duelles incident to the Season. Pride, Opposition, Extortion, Injustice, hath not end with this year, nor can to be still over-ruling, and bearing dominion over Mankind.

Observations for the good Husbands and good Housewives.

Put your Sheep to the Peas reeks, kill your small Porks and large Bacons, lop hedges, carve your Timber for building, and lay it to season: plow your ground you intend to sow clean Beans on: cover your tender fruit trees, drain your corn fields, and water your Meadows: cover your best flowers with rotten horse-litter. Now all sorts of Fowle are in season, keep thy self warm with a wholsome Dyet, and avoid all Cares that shall trouble thy spirit, as a dangerous thing.
